USE NOTES

1. Civil Forms 4-981 to 4-991 NMRA may be used in the district courts of this State by persons who are representing themselves in uncontested kinship guardianship proceedings. Civil Forms 4-981 to 4-991 NMRA are not required to be used. Parties represented by an attorney may use other forms that serve the same purpose.
2. The petitioner must be a spouse, parent, stepparent, godparent, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, half-sister, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, first cousin or any person denoted by the prefix "grand" or "great", the spouse or former spouse of the child or an adult with whom the child has a significant bond. See Section 40-10B-5 NMSA 1978 for persons who may file as a petitioner pursuant to the Kinship Guardianship Act.
3. Unless the child's parent is deceased or the parent's parental rights have been terminated, the parent must be joined as a respondent. This petition must be served on each parent of the child in the manner provided by Rule 1-004 NMRA for personal service to Rule 1-004 NMRA, unless:
 - (a) a consent form has been signed by the parent;

- (b) the parent is deceased and a death certificate is attached to this petition at the time it is filed;
- (c) the parent's rights as a parent have been terminated by a court order and a copy of the order is attached to this petition at the time it is filed.

Civil Form 4-982 NMRA, "Kinship Guardianship Summons" has been provided for use with this petition.

- 4. Insert the name or the initials of the minor child and the child's birthdate. This form may be modified to include additional minor children. The name of a child shall not be made available to the public on the internet.
- 5. This form cannot be used without revision if the child is an Indian child. In these cases, the form of the petition and the manner of notice must comply with federal law. The Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Section 1901 et seq., defines "Indian child" as follows:

"Indian child" means any unmarried person who is under age eighteen and is either (a) a member of an Indian tribe or (b) is eligible for membership in an Indian tribe and is the biological child of a member of an Indian tribe.

(25 U.S.C. Section 1903(4)). If the child is enrolled or is eligible for enrollment in an Indian tribe, the form of the petition and the manner of the notice must comply with federal law. The parent or Indian custodian of an Indian child may have the right to have the child returned upon demand as may be determined by tribal law or custom.

- 6. See Forms 4-985 or Form 4-986 NMRA for parental consent forms.
- 7. If the parent is deceased, insert "deceased" instead of address and check the "deceased" box. A copy of the death certificate must be attached to this petition.
- 8. Section 40-10A-209 NMSA 1978 of the Uniform Child-Custody Jurisdiction Enforcement Act requires the first pleading of every custody action to give information under oath as to the child's present address, the places where the child has lived within the last (five) 5 years and the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during that period.
- 9. Attach a copy of each parent's Verified Parental Consent to Appointment of Guardian and Waiver of Service of Process to this petition. See Civil Forms 4-985 and 4-986 NMRA.

10. If an abuse or neglect or other proceeding has been filed by the Children, Youth and Families Department, that department must file a consent to the appointment of petitioners as Kinship Guardians. Attach a copy of such consent to this petition.
11. If the child is fourteen (14) years of age or older, the child must be served with a copy of this Petition or a copy of the Nomination of Guardian Form, Civil Form 4-983 NMRA, must be attached to this Petition at the time it is filed.
12. The child's mother may be ordered to pay child support. The respondent named as the child's father may be ordered to pay child support if the respondent father has admitted paternity or paternity has been established by another proceeding. See Civil Forms 4A-331 and 4A-332 NMRA for a petition to establish paternity and a final decree of paternity.

[Provisionally approved, effective August 15, 2003 until August 31, 2004; approved effective October 14, 2005.]
